THE MANY LIVES OF PAULI MURRAY

Courtesy Schlesinger Library / Radcliffe Institute / Harvard University

"She was an architect of the civil-rights struggle—and the women's movement. Why haven't you heard of her?"

This New Yorker profile on Pauli

Murray, a largely unknown but fascinating figure in American history, says this about her: "This was Murray's lifelong fate: to be both ahead of her time and behind the scenes." Read the full article here.
